

Department of Geography

Program outcome (POs)

Name of the Program	Program outcome
BA	PO1 Students develop a solid understanding of the concepts of “space,” “place” and “region” and their importance in explaining world affairs. PO2 Students understand general demographic principles and their patterns at regional and global scales. PO3 Students able to locate on a map major physical features, cultural regions, and individual states and urban centers. PO4 Students understand global and regional patterns of cultural, political and economic institutions, and their effects on the preservation, use and exploitation of natural resources and landscapes. PO5 Demonstrating proficiency in using geographical research tools including spatial statistics, cartography, remote sensing, GIS and GPS. PO6 Identifying, interpreting and analyzing geographic problems and processes. PO7 Formulating a research methodology and executing a formal student-led research project PO8 To acquaint the utility and application of geography in different region and environment. PO9 Inculcate a sense of environmental ethics that focus research and concerns on sustainability. PO10 Develop critical thinking and skills that train students to analyze problems and validate real life solutions. PO11 Ensure that the lessons are self-directed and lead to lifelong learning. PO12 Study Tour, Field visits, Project work, City Survey, Oral Examination.